THE GIFT OF LUXURY

MASTERPIECES OF DESIGN INLAID WITH RADIANT LIGHT ON THE FINEST BONE CHINA PROUNA JEWELRY

Mankind has adorned itself with decoration for thousands of years in order to give outward symbol to its sense of beauty, status and self-identity. Yet a necklace or bracelet, no matter how striking, only attains true beauty when its own form combines with that of the wearer to create something new, something unique. And that is the philosophy of a stunning new range of chinaware by Prouna.

Prouna Jewelry is the result of a long planned collaboration which combines the elegant beauty of flawless bone china with the exquisite qualities of SWAROVSKI® ELEMENTS purest gemstones, to create a new and exciting chapter in chinaware.

DIANA

Inspired by the Roman goddess of the moon, Diana radiates with the power and beauty of the celestial body that has so bewitched observers for thousands of years. Bathed in a translucent moonlit glow, each elegant shape is edged in hand painted 24 carat gold and decorated with radiant ochre SWAROVSKI® ELEMENTS, each gem seemingly a shard of moonlight splintered from the celestial orb itself.

ADONIS

A byword for physical perfection, the Adonis range finds inspiration in mythology. An ancient story of love and passion is echoed in the timeless beauty of Swarovski crystals picking out the pattern of stars in the night sky. These precious elements punctuate the classic form of each piece, as words on a gleaming white page, whilst hand painted 24 carat gold – the currency of the gods – is used to delicately wrap each elegant form.

PRINCESS

Inspired by the elegance and majesty of a Royal wedding, the Princess design is truly a fairy tale marriage in its own right. A coming together of elegant design and sophisticated decor, simple platinum lines provide a timeless frame in which a symmetry of perfect gemstones shimmer in elegant harmony.

Continuing the wedding theme, the sculpted white form of each piece has been wrapped in an intricate veil of silk-like platinum, punctuated with gemstones of pure ice. The Princess is indeed a truly regal collection.

REGENCY PLATINUM

If elegance were to be given form then Regency would be it. The perfect accessory to a truly special occasion, the pure beauty of Regency's sculpted china forms is enhanced by the symmetry of platinum gilt edging. Inspired by the inlaid metal work so favoured by designers of the Regency period from which the collection takes its name, the effortless symmetry of the concentric lines which sweep around each piece, evokes the spirit of early twentieth century design, a period renowned and revered for its simplicity, style and elegance.

JUPITER

The Roman god of light and sky, Jupiter was a king amongst gods whose name was bestowed upon the largest of the planets. And just as Jupiter's majestic moons encircle its own planetary form, so too a wealth of crystals in varying sizes embellishes each piece in this stunning range.

And in an echo of the beauty and majesty of space itself, golden lines elegantly traced around each form by the skilled hands of Prouna's artists, give a sense of grandness and order to this perfect collection.

PERIDOT

Throughout nature, green is the signifier of life; the new shoots filled with moisture, the power and majesty of the rainforest canopy turning a hundred thousand leaves to face the sun. And so it is with Peridot, as green lines embrace rays of light and gems planted as seeds shine through as dew on fresh morning grass. Peridot – the giver of life, the signifier of beauty.

THE MAKING OF PROUNA

Searching the world for the right blend of skills required to bring together form and function in such a unique way, Prouna selected only the highest quality raw materials and the latest state of the art technologies available in England, France, Germany and USA in order to realise its concept.

And when it came to its manufacture, Prouna chose a company with a truly distinguished heritage. Hankook Chinaware has a long tradition supplying many of the world's most prestigious companies. Its location, drawing on over 5,000 years of Korean tradition and craftsmanship, made it the ideal partner to be entrusted with turning Prouna's unique vision into a reality.

And its rich heritage and innovative approach mirrored perfectly the blend of history and technology that was at the very essence of Prouna itself. And now Hankook has been entrusted with bringing this beautiful new concept to life.

Presenting a unique harmony of form, function and beauty... Prouna Jewelry.

Its very name resonates with exotic mystery. For more than three thousand years Persia was a melting pot of civilizations and the Persia range similarly evokes such a majestic heritage. Intoxicating hand drawn designs hark back to a time of eastern elegance and exquisite lines of delicate blooms sit below a feast of gemstone stars cast across the night sky.

CORSAGE

The wearing of flowers in order to enhance beauty goes back to ancient times, and it is this tradition that has been exquisitely brought up to date in this beautiful range. Three designs, all unique, yet each inextricably linked, depict a corsage of anemones which entwine the white china body of these beautiful vessels. Each flower is adorned with an array of Swarovski gemstones which glisten like drops of rain resting on the delicate petals.

The delicate blooms painted in red, blue and yellow, have been picked out in perfect detail by the exquisite skills of the artist and their innate beauty is only further accentuated by the qualities of each gemstone centre.
