

WHEY COSMETICS

NEW GENERATION OF NATURAL COSMETIC PRODUCTS

The skin is the mirror of health and beauty!

What are Biosana Whey Cosmetics?

Since ancient times, women and men have understood the value of using milk-derived products to enhance their beauty. Whey-based cosmetics are a reliable helper from nature to benefit the body's largest organ, the skin. Valuable vitamins, especially from the B group, as well as important minerals such as calcium and potassium contained in Biosana Whey Cosmetics ensure healthy skin. A variety of natural oils are used including avocado oil, carrot oil and wheat oil. Vitamin D is in the creams, in effective quantities.

What do Biosana Whey Cosmetics do for the body?

Whey Cosmetics help to re-balance the skin's moisture and protect it against ultra-violet damage and environmental impurities which accelerate the ageing process. Whey Cosmetics condition and protect the skin with a moisture-rich, luxurious blend of high-grade vegetable oils and natural whey to soothe, moisturise and soften the skin. It stimulates cell renewal and nourishes the skin with the essential vitamins. Whey Cosmetics have an effective biological-functional influence on the skin's metabolism, blood circulation and skin vitality. They normalize skin functions, promote cell regeneration and make the skin more resistant. Modern life-styles have resulted in increasing acidity in the body. Additional basic minerals in Biosana Whey Cosmetics promote the acid-base balance in the skin. The Biosana Whey bath is a mild alkaline bath powder, effectively allowing the pH of the skin to be adjusted to neutral.
